WHAT IS THE D7 VISA?

All You Need To Know

The D7 Visa is an alternative route to obtain Portuguese Residency at lower governmental fees, with a quicker approval rate, for those who intend to actually live in Portugal.

The application starts at the Portuguese Consulate of the country where the applicant has a habitual residence.

D7 PRIVILEGES

Applicants are entitled to:

- Live in Portugal, reunify their family members, work, and have access to public schools and universities. Have access to the Portuguese Social Security System, which includes the National Health System. Use the courts of law and access the Portuguese laws.

Who can apply?

Non-EU/EEA/Swiss citizens who desire to relocate to Portugal and can carry out a professional activity remotely and anywhere and/or are retired and are entitled to a pension, and/or are living from personal revenue, such as bank account savings, rents, dividends, interests.

REQUIREMENTS

- Obtain a Portuguese Tax Number (NIF) and open a Portuguese bank account.
- Submit an online visa application and schedule an appointment at the Portuguese Consulate in your current country of residence.
- Hold Travel and Health Insurance or provide a declaration confirming its procurement within 90 days of arrival in Portugal.
- Possess a clean criminal record.
- Sign a declaration specifying:
 - the purpose of the visa request.
 - the Intended length of stay in Portugal.
 - the Address in Portugal, including details of any family or friends residing in the country.
- Prove to have enough income to reside in Portugal for at least 24 months, which can be done through:
 - Pension applicants: a document proving retirement status, income received, or other income obtained in Portugal.
 - Passive income applicants: an annual tax return, indicate owned real estate and financial assets, and show availability of such resources in Portugal.
 - Digital Nomads: Salary receipts, bank account statements, annual tax return.
- Prove to have a domicile in Portugal by:
 - Acquiring, renting or borrowing a property.
 - Invitation letter written from a citizen with a legal residence in Portugal, providing accommodation for the applicant.

VALIDITY AND FUTURE OPPORTUNITIES

What can you expect?

The Passive Income Visa, is a temporary Residence Permit valid for a period of 2 years, renewed for periods of 3 years. This permit obliges to a minimum stay of 6 months a year, plus 2 months in each period of its validity (provided that applicants do not leave the country for more than 6 consecutive months). However, longer absences are allowed if due to professional, cultural or personal reasons.

After a minimum of 5 years, applicants may seek a Permanent Residence Permit, requiring basic knowledge of the Portuguese language, a Portuguese address, and a clean criminal record, or apply for Portuguese citizenship, with the same requirements as the former with an additional demonstration of existing connections and ties within the Portuguese Community.

WHY CHOOSE PORTUGAL?

HERE ARE 4 REASONS

- Portugal provides enticing tax regimes and residence permits for investors and permanent relocators alike.
- Access to excellent free healthcare, with Portugal's national health system ranking 12th globally according to the World Health Organization.
- 3rd safest country in the world, offering peace of mind and security.
- With a relatively low cost of living compared to other European destinations, Portugal offers affordability without compromising quality of life.
